The details of Dr. McKenna's last few moments on the train as recounted by some of those who were present are that the doctor was in a very jovial mood and expressed himself as never having enjoyed an evening more thoroughly than the one just past. When the train was approaching the water-works someone suggested that they gather up their things, as they were plied at this point. He says there has been no winter yet in his part of Wyonearly home. Dr. McKenna arose and walked out on the rear platform. No one saw him after that, no one missed him, every one being preoccupied with his own affairs. A little later the shocking word reached the police station from the waterworks and was passed on to Mr. Freed and others. Dr. Patrick McKenna was born in County Cavan, in the north of Ireland, about forty-two years ago. His early education he received in St. Patrick's College, Cavan city, and was celebrated as a crack football player. He came to the United States fifteen years ago, and became a resident of New Orleans. He studied medicine at Tulane university and soon after getting his diploma he married a New Orleans girl. He came married a New Orleans girl. He came to Salt Lake eleven years ago and has been a prominent figure in local medical circles ever since. He was a cultured man with the ability to speak fluently in French, Spanish and Italian. At the outbreak of the Spanish war he held the position of interne at the Holy Cross hospital, but through the efforts of Col. Willard Young he became a surgeon in the latter's regiment of engineers with the rank of captain. At the close of the war he returned to his position of interne. Last February he ourchased Dr. Hosmer's interest in the Keogh-Hosmer hospital. He leaves his parents, two brothers and a sister, all of whom live at Salida, Colorado,

PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING

Scott Davis, live stock agent of the Union Pacific, leaves this week for Chi-cago in attendance on the annual meet-ing of the National Live Stock association. Mr. Davis will meet the Idaha delegation at Granger and accompany them east. He says this meeting of the association will be the most notable one ever held as at the same time the fat stock show will be in session and the two meetings combined will be sure to prove a drawing card. The matter of leasing the public lands will come up for special discussion, and Mr. Davis says the opposition to the government's leasing public lands to the great corporations will be stronger than ever.

W. R. Kivett, of Belse, secretary of the Idaho Lumbermen's association a guest at the Kenyon. He says there is such a demand for buildings in the building material to meet the call, Mr. Kivett with associates is contemplating erection at Boise of a $50,000 office building as there is a strong demand for just such an enterprise. But the location has not yet been decided up-on. He says a $20,000 wagon road is now under construction into the Thun-der mountain district from Boise, and that Col. Dewey will undoubtedly ex-tend his railroad to the new gold fields. Kivett feels sure there must be great riches there because where there is good placer mining there is always deeper deposits not far off.

"There are more ducks in the Bear river country than in the last five years," said A. E. McKenzie at the Kenyon today. "There are millions them, twenty-six varieties in all, with the mallards, teal, and red heads in the majority. There are lots of gild geese in that country, but like 'Joey Bagstock,' they are 'devilish shy.' They can see you from a long distance and then they change their feeding grounds every day. I have been spending a few days shooting up on the club reserve and went out the other morning to where the geese had been reported as pientiful the day be-fore—and behold, not a goose! That Bear River Duck club has a national reputation now, and twelve states are represented on its roster. Then the represented on its roster. Local railroad men are interested in the meeting to be held in New York some time next month. Whether this meeting will turn out to be another 'gentlemen's agreement" or not is not certain, but the e is a presentment that an understanding will be reached as to the maintenance of rates for the coming year that will, it is hoped, put an end to rate cutting and equalize things all 'round. The small roads, it is claimed, will not cut any particular figure in opposition, as the big roads will handle the receipts and distribute the same to its connections over which the traffic passes, and the smaller lines will have to take what they can get out of it and let it go at that. #### THE OLD WAY Of Treating Stomach Trouble and Indigestion, a Barbarous and Useless One. We say the old way but really it is the common and usual one at the present time and many dyspeptics, and physicians as well, consider the first step in attempting to cure indigestion is to diet, either by selecting certain food and rejecting others or to greatly diminish the quantity of food usually taken.

In other words the starvation plan, is by many, supposed to be the first es-sential in the cure of weak digestion.

The almost certain failure of the starvation cure for stomach trouble has been proven time and again but still the usual advice, when dyspepsia makes its appearance, is a course of All this is radically wrong. It is foolish and unscientific to recommend dict-ing or starvation to a person suffering from dyspepsia because indigestion it self starves every organ and every nerve and fibre in the body. What is needed is abundant nutri-tion, not less, and this means plenty of good, wholesome, well-cooked food and some natural digestive to assist the weak stomach to digest it.

This is exactly the purpose for which Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are adapted and this is the way they cure the worst cases of stomach trouble. The patient eats plenty of wholesome food, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets

And this is in accordance with nature and common sense because in this way the whole system is nourished and the overworked stomach rested, because the tablets will digest the food, whether the stomach works or not. One of stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 1800 grains of meat, eggs and similar

IS GROWING FAST.

L. D. S. University Needs More Room-Social Hall to Be Utilized.

Over eight hundred students have enrolled in the various departments of the Latter-day Saints' University to date, this school year. They are a body of bright, energetic young men and women, averaging about 18 years of age. The growth of the institution is very gratifying to the trustees and to the friends of education generally. The attendance this year is practically double that of preceding years prior to last one-third. In previous years there have been scarcely one-third the present number, and it is expected that many more will enter, particularly right after the Christmas vacation. The authorities of the institution are somewhat perplexed as to how to provide sufficient room, but they seem determined that no worthy applicants shall be de-nied admission. The delays in the ar-rival of materials for the completion of Earratt Han have been a source of disappointment; and as that building will not be ready till after the holidays, anther move has been decided upon.

As soon as the Art Institute is through with the Social hall, the Lat-ter-day Saints' University will fit up one of the rooms of that building and occupy it with one department pend-ing the completion of Barratt hall. It was thought that the Lion house and the Business college would contain the students until the new building should be in readiness, but the attendance has exceeded the expectations, and it will now be necessary to procure more room. HAMILTON'S JUDGE EATS CALIFORNIA PRUNES. 120 Main Street. You can prune a gooseberry bush, small boy's hair, or a mill-hand's salary, and thereby make each of them less. But it remained for George H. Daniels of the New York Central to prune a railroad and make it greater.

Pecial Saturday, from 2 No one, not even the man who is a No one, not even the man who is a chronic boarding-house dweller, knows what a real prune is, in all its ramifications and subtler shades of meaning, until he has eaten one of the California variety while traveling at the rate of a mile a minute on any New York Central chain-lightning express. To put a prune into your mouth at Forty-second street and have it chewed at Pough-keersje and swallowed at Albany is Our Famous Klondyke Nuggets, 25 cents a Box. keepsie and swallowed at Albany is certainly a unique experience, as well as one that should convince the average Broken Buttercups, 15 cents a Pound epicure of limited capital that it is a great saucerful of prunes that will stretch out over the period of time required to go from New York to Buffalo. And the reason that these prunes cover so much territory is not because of the slowness of the prunes, but of the swiftness of the train. It isn't the
